

Washington Hawthorn (Crataegus Phaenopyrum)

- Height: Small, 25'-30'; up to 30' tall
Width: 25'-30' spread
Shape: Dense, rounded crown
Growth: Medium growth rate
Light: Full sun
Leaves: Deciduous leaves turn yellow to orange or scarlet in fall
Flowers: Fragrant, 5-petaled, white flowers in clusters bloom in late-spring
Fruit: Edible, bright red fruit
Soil: Prefers moist; well-drained soil
Water: Medium
Drought: Strong tolerance
Disease: Moderately susceptible

NEW YORK
RESTORATION
PROJECT

